CONDITIONAL SENTENCES (IF CLAUSE)

Conditional clauses are used to express conditions. They are also called if clauses. They are called conditional clauses because of a certain condition is supposed or imagined to be fulfilled in order for an action to take place. Conditional clauses contain the word if or unless

Example

John will be pleased if he passes exams (It means that John will be pleased only when he passes exams)

Conditional sentences are divided into three; conditional clause 1 (if 1) conditional clause 2 (if 2), conditional clause 3 (if 3)

Conditional clause 1 (if 1)

Conditional clause 1 expresses that something is going to happen or chances for it to happen are high if a certain condition is fulfilled

Examples

1. If Mary buys that skirt, she will become smart.
2. I shall fall sick if I eat dirt.
3. If your father gives you school fees, you will go to school

Guidelines on the use of if 1

We use the present simple tense in the if clause and the future simple tense in the main clause

Example

1. If I get money, I shall buy a radio
2. Mother will punish us if we don't complete the work
3. If Juma comes, we shall go together

The condition to be fulfilled is contained in the if clause and the action to take place is in the main clause

We use the present tense in the if clause and the imperative in the main clause when telling or advising a person to do something because of a relevant condition

Examples

1. if he comes, tell him I have gone to town
2. if you are sick go to the hospital
3. if you become thirsty, get a cold drink

When talking or asking about facts or general truths we use the present tense in both the main and if clauses

Examples

1. If you heat metals, they expand
2. If you uproot a plant, it dries up
3. If I have a bad dream, I experience the opposite

When an if clause comes first put a comma after it and before the main clause

Example

1. If he comes, I shall go

When the main clause comes first there is no need of a comma

Example

I shall go if he comes

At times the word 'when' is used instead of 'if' once we are sure that the condition will be fulfilled

Example

When I die, I will rot

When mercy fails, force is applied

Activity

Use the words in the brackets to complete the following sentences in if I

15. If he.....(go) his father will be sad.

Conditional clause 2 (if clause 2)

This clause is used to express a condition which is impossible and whose result we are only imagining.

Unlike in if 1 where there is a possibility of the condition being fulfilled in if 2 one is just imagining what would happen if the impossible came true.

In if 2 the condition cannot be fulfilled at all it is just day dreaming

Example

1. If I were you, I wouldn't eat posho. (It is impossible for one to turn into someone else)
2. If I were God, I would leave man to live forever. (it is impossible for me to become God)

Guidelines on the use of if 2

We use the past simple tense in if clause and a would + a verb in the present tense in the main clause

Example

If I were a king, I would not look poor.

We often use 'were' instead of 'was' in order to put emphasis on the nature of the impossibility

Example

If he were a snake, he would bite all sinners.

While in the affirmative it remainsas.....as.....
