ASPECT 10 – VERBS AND TENSES
A verb is an action word while a tense is the change of a verb according to time.

LESSON 1 – 13
Present simple tense
This is commonly used for actions which happen every day, always, weekly, yearly etc

We go to school everyday
I always go to the market
I eat food daily

The tense can also be used to describe one’s ability to do something.
e.g He plays the guitar very well.
The tense can be used to describe facts e.g The sun rises in the east and sets in the west.
Water boils at 100°C

The tense is also used after ‘if’ in likely conditional clauses.
E.g if he comes tomorrow, we shall remind him.

Evaluation activity
Pupils will do the task on page 74 MK precise English
English Grammar in use page 5.

NEGATIVE, INTERROGATIVE AND AFFIRMATIVE OF THE PRESENT
A negative sentence is one that disagrees with an action
Example
The teacher does not come late.
Girls do not grow beards.
Bad students never work hard.

Interrogative sentences are question sentences. They end in a question mark.
Example
Does the teacher come late?
Do girls grow beards?
Do bad girls work hard?

Evaluation activity
Change the following sentences
(a) Interrogative
(b) Negative
Junior English Composition and Grammar page 8 MK Precise English pg 74

ACTIVE AND PASSIVE VOICE
In active voice, the sentence starts with a subject (doer) and ends with an object (receiver)

In passive voice, the sentence starts with an object.
N.B: Vague subjects should not be repeated in passive voice e.g someone, somebody, people, some girls, no one, we, they

Someone ate my food.
My food was eaten.
People speak English allover the world.
English is spoken all over the world.

Evaluation activity
Change the following sentences to passive voice.
Junior English Composition and Grammar page 52

Rewrite the following sentences in passive voice
1. Those girls wear khaki skirts
2. You dig the pit latrine first
3. Radio Uganda often broadcasts lunch time news
4. That team wins a match whenever Bob is the referee.
5. Who punishes the stubborn boys?
6. Why does he clean the blackboard?
7. Who slaps those little boys?
8. Musa does not drink milk.
9. They never comb their hair.

QUESTION TAGS IN PRESENT SIMPLE TENSE
NOTE
An affirmative sentence requires a negative question tag
Example
I live here, don’t I ?
A negative sentence requires an affirmative question tag.
I don’t need to work, do I?
A sentence is separated from the question tag by a comma
A question tag must end in a question mark

The question tag is written beginning with a small letter.
Requests, commands and suggestions require special question tags
e.g. Let’s go out, will you?
- Stop shouting, will you?/won’t you?
- Write to me, will you? / will you?
- You’d better go, hadn’t you?
- you’d rather stay, wouldn’t you?
  - I am in P.7, aren’t I?
  - I am not in P.7 am I?
  - We need to work, don’t we?
  - He rarely comes here, doesn’t he?
  - He always comes here, doesn’t he?
  - There is a kitten in the kitchen, isn’t there?

Evaluation activity
Add a suitable question tag
1. That boy runs very fast,
2. You don’t like sugar,
3. You can do that for him,
4. I am not slow,
5. I am very slow,
6. Let’s pretend we are not here,
7. Let me have a look,
8. One cannot be perfect,
9. Close the door,
10. He plays the piano badly,

PRESENT CONTINUOUS TENSE
This tense is used to express actions going on at the time of speaking and even for those actions that are to take place in the near future.
Example
The teacher is teaching English
My uncle is coming tomorrow

N.B: Verbs not used in the continuous tense
- See
- Never
- Smell
- Taste
- Feel
- Agree
- Doubt

ASPECT 19
Relative clauses
A relative clause tells us which person or thing the speaker means

Example
The woman who lives next door is a doctor.
Relative clauses are introduced by the following relative pronouns, who, that, which, whom, whose, where

DEFINING RELATIVE CLAUSES
Defining relative clauses tell us how and what the subject is/was.

Example
A man is not a good citizen. He steals
A man who steals is not a good citizen

Defining relative clause
Defining relative clauses tell us who and what the subject is/was

Example
A man is not a good citizen. He steals.
A man who steals is not a good citizen.
The boy nearly drowned. He fell into the well.
The boy who fell into the well nearly drowned.

SPEECHES
Direct speech
This is when the actual words of the speaker are written as they were mentioned without changing anything.
Example
Tom said, “I am not feeling well”
“I am very hungry” said Alex.
The actual words of the speaker are enclosed in quotation marks. A comma separates the speaker’s words from the verb that reports.
Example
said asked inquired
The actual words of the speaker begin with a capital letter.
Each punctuation mark is placed clearly away from the others.
Evaluation activity
Punctuate the following sentences
1. I am going to school said John
2. The teacher said close your books.
3. Where is my book asked the boy.
4. Can you show me the way to the mosque asked the stranger.
5. I am not coming he said.

Reported speech/ indirect speech
This is when the speaker’s words are reported
Example
The man said that he wanted to see his son.
Main points
- Quotation marks are not used in reported speech.
- The comma is also dropped.
Some changes are made
- in tenses
- in pronouns
- in adverbs
- If the reporting verb is in the present tense, the tense does not change when reporting
  Example
  Joy says, “My pen is missing.”
  Joy says that pen is missing.
- When the reporting verb is in the past tense, the tense of the words quoted has to change
  Example
  John said, “my pen is missing.’
John said that his pen was missing.

- When reporting scientific facts, the tense does not change
  Example
  ‘Water boils at 100°C, the teacher said.
  The teacher said that water boils at 100°C.
- ‘Must’ changes
  (a) ‘must’ in present tense changes to “had to”
    Example
    “I must write to my friend,” Rebecca said
    Rebecca said that she had to write to her friend.
  (b) Must (future) changes to “would have to”
    Example
    “I must leave for London next year,” said the teacher.
    The teacher said that he would have to leave for London the following year.
  (c) Must
    It is used as rule remains MUST
    Example
    “Children must obey their parents,” the Headmaster said.
  (d) MUST
    (To mean certainty) remains must
    Example
    “He must be 15 years now,” said John.
    John said that he must be 15 years then

Note:
Commands and requests
(i) The imperative form of the verb is changed to infinitive
    Example
    “Take this book to the office,” he told me.
    He told me to take the book to the office
(ii) When the reporting verb say takes an object, it is changed to a verb that introduces a command.
    Example
    - We shall go home tomorrow,” he said to me.
    - He told me that they would go home the next day.

ACTIVE AND PASSIVE VOICE OF FUTURE PERFECT
It takes
Will/shall have + v (past participle) ------
Example
Active – Samuel will have driven the bus to Masindi
Passive- The bus will have been driven by Samuel to Masindi
Evaluation activity
(Change to passive voice)
1. The teacher will have punished the stubborn boys.
2. The barber will have trimmed my hair by Easter.
3. The carpenter will have sold ten beds by Christians
4. The chef will have cooked our food by lunch time.
Note:
Adverbs of manner come immediately after the passive verb BUT
Adverbs of place and time come at the end of passive sentence.
PARTICIPLE PHRASES
These are grouped into two types: present participle and past participle

Examples
(i) Crossing the road, the old man was knocked dead by a speeding lorry.
(ii) Deceived by his friends, he lost all hope of continuing with education.
(iii) Driving carelessly along the road, we knocked a goat down.
(iv) Driven by hunger, he stole a piece of bread.

COMPARISON OF ADJECTIVES

Adjectives are compared in three forms thus

Positive degree (made when on comparison is made) It is used to show the existence of some quality of what we speak about.

Example
Anna’s mango is sweet.

Comparative degree: It is to show a higher/greater degree of quality than the positive. It is used when two sets of things are compared.

Example:
Musoke is taller than Joy.
Cars are dearer than bicycles.
Superlative degree: It is used to show the highest degree of quality and it is used when more than two things or set of things are compared.

Formation of comparatives and superlatives

(i) Adjectives (and adverbs) of one syllable (except adjectives in the form of the past participle) make the comparative by adding ‘er’ and ‘est’

Example
Tall - taller - tallest
Big - bigger - biggest
Fast - faster - fastest
Torn - more torn - most torn

(ii) Adjectives of two syllable ending in “y” ‘er’ ‘ow’ and ‘ie’ normally from the comparative and superlative with ‘er’ or ‘est’
Pretty prettier prettiest
Clear clearer clearest
Narrow narrower narrowest
Able abler ablest
(others in the same category are: common, polite, quiet, wicked, cruel, stupid, pleasant)

(iii) Adjectives of two syllables other than those ending in ‘y’, ‘er’ ‘ow’ and ‘ie’ form the comparative with more and most.
Hopeful more hopeful most hopeful
Honest -
Selfish -

(iv) Adjectives of three or more syllables form their comparative and superlative with more and most.
Efficient more efficient most efficient

(v) Irregular adjectives
Good better best
Ill worse worst
Evil worse worst
Dad worse worst
Much more most
Little less least
Many more most Old older oldest (not related
Eldest (same family)

(vi) When the adjective ends in ‘y’ proceeded by a consonant, the ‘y’ is changed into ‘i’ before adding ‘er’ or ‘est’
Example
Easy
Happy
Merry
Noisy
Clumsy

(vii) If the adjective ends in a simple consonant proceeded by a short vowel, the last consonant is doubled before adding ‘er’ or ‘est’ (cvc of the last three letters)
Red redder reddest
Fat fatter fattest
Thin thinner thinnest
Hot hotter hottest

ASPECT ADVERBS

An adverb is a word that tells us more about a verb, an adjective or another adverb

Example

Once, slowly,yesterday etc
Types of adverbs

(i) Adverbs of manner – tell us how something happens to happen.
   Example:
   They sing beautifully

(ii) Adverbs of time – tell us when something happens or happened
   Example
   He came yesterday

(iii) Adverbs of place – tell us where something takes place or took place e.g My aunt lives in Kenya.

(iv) Adverbs of frequency – tell us how often something happens or happened.
   Usually Rarely
   Example
   He seldom comes here.
   (Often seldom)

(v) Adverbs of degree – tell us to what extent something is or was
   Example
   She is very tired
   quite, too, indeed, so, almost, much, only

(vi) Adverbs of quality/number tell us how much, many something is or was, once, twice, thrice

(vii) Adverbs of questioning
   Where
   When How

(viii) Adverbs of affirmation and negation
   Yes, certainly, surely, no, not
   Ref: MK Precise Pg 50 – 4
   First Aid English – pg 74

FORMATION OF ADVERBS

(i) Adverbs of manner are most formed from adjectives by adding ly.
   Adjective       adverb
   Wise             wisely
   Foolish          foolishly
   Slow             slowly
   Beautiful        beautifully

(ii) When the adjective ends in y proceeded by a consonant, change y into i and add ly
   Adjective       adverb
   Happy             happily
   Early
   Clumsy

Ref: First Aid English page 75

Order of adverbs

When there are two or more adverbs (a verb and its object) the normal order is, (MPT)

i) Adverb of manner

ii) Adverb of place

iii) Adverb of time
Example
She sang well at the party last Friday.
If there are more adverbs of time or place in a sentence, it’s usual to put more exact expressions before the more general ones.

Example
- He was born at 6 o’clock on a cold December morning in 2008.
- She lives at Nateete, Rubaga division in Kampala district.
