2) The teacher said, “We shall break up for holidays soon.”

When writing direct speech, you should take note of the following.

a) A comma is used to separate actual words used by a speaker from the word or verb that reports e.g. said, asked, told me, requested, ordered, exclaimed.

b) The actual words begin with a capital letter.

c) The speaker’s words begin with opening quotation marks and closes with closing quotation marks. (‘ …’)
